

How to Navigate to Your Courses in webCampus

There are many ways to navigate webCampus. Choose the method that best meets your learner preferences.

WebCampus Home

The webCampus home page lists resources and course categories. You can search for courses using the Search courses feature or expand the categories to find your courses.

The screenshot shows the webCampus home page. At the top, there is a search bar with the text "Search courses:" followed by an input field and a "Go" button. Below the search bar, the word "Courses" is displayed in a large, bold font. To the right of "Courses", there is a link that says "Collapse all". Below "Courses", there are two main categories: "Student & Faculty Resources" and "Academic Programs". Each category has a list of subcategories. The "Student & Faculty Resources" category includes "Student Resource Courses", "Faculty Resource Courses", "UWS Student Clubs", and "Evidence-Informed Practice Training". The "Academic Programs" category includes "MS Human Nutrition & Functional Medicine", "MS Exercise & Sports Science", "Bachelor of Science", "Summer 2014", "Massage Therapy", and "Doctor of Chiropractic". A yellow box highlights the "Bachelor of Science" category, and a callout box points to it with the text "Click on the arrows next to the category and subcategory titles to expand the menu."

Search courses: Go

Type all of part of the course name here to find a course.
